COLLEGE STUDENTS

I am a college freshman and will need to complete two co-ops for graduation. When should I start looking?

As a general rule, students should try to find and apply for an internship at least 3-4 months before the company's announced start date. Here are some suggested timelines:

- Spring Internship – Late Summer or early Fall of the previous year
- Summer Internship – Beginning of the calendar year (January or February)
- Fall Internship – Mid-Winter semester (April or May)
- Winter Internship – Beginning of Fall semester (August or September)
